NOTES AND NEWS.

The mid-winter meetings in Chicago were attended by 121 library workers representing 19 states, the District of Columbia and two provinces of Canada.

The Toledo public library has printed at the top of its stationery: "Institutional member of the American Library Association." We recommend this practice to other institutional members of the A. L. A.

Due to a mistake which the editor regrets, the "Expenses per capita" of the St. Louis public library were recorded as 35 cents, instead of 30 cents, in the table of comparative library statistics in the November Bulletin.

Mrs. H. L. Elmendorf, president of the A. L. A., was the Association's official delegate to the Keystone state library association meeting at Saegertown, Pa., Oct. 19-21; at the District of Columbia library association conference at Washington November 8; and at the New York state teachers' association meeting at Albany, Nov. 27-29. At each of these meetings Mrs. Elmendorf delivered an address.

Martinus Nijhoff, of The Hague, announces the publication of a new monthly magazine, entitled "Het Boek," which will be devoted to matters connected with books, and will contain articles on subjects of bibliographic and typographic interest and on library economy. The editors are Dr. C. P. Burger, Jr., librarian of the Amsterdam university library, and V. A. de la Montague, bibliophile, of Brussels.
